

"we were born for battle against the tide of compromise."

